

TOUGH CRIMES

True Cases by Top Canadian Criminal Lawyers

C.D. Evans and Lorene Shyba, Editors

Book One in the True Cases series

Now in its third printing, Tough Crimes is a collection of thoughtful and insightful stories by twenty of Canada's most prominent criminal lawyers. In the book, they write about cases that had surprising turns, or that presented personal or ethical challenges.

In Tough Crimes, Edward Greenspan writes on one of his most perplexing verdicts; Richard Wolson and Marilyn Sandford on the wrongfully convicted; Earl Levy on the Toronto Shoeshine Boy murder; Peter Martin on a study of evil; John Rosen on defending Paul Bernardo; Fred Ferguson on a child's death; William Smart on a "Mr. Big" sting; Richard Peck on Air India; Noel O'Brien on corpora delicti; Joel Pink on the Antigonish Beech Hill murders; Brian Beresh on unanswered questions; Patrick Fagan on reasonable doubt; Mark Brayford on Robert Latimer; Marie Henein on the wrongfully charged; C.D. Evans on weighing moralities; William Trudell on the Walkerton water treatment disaster; forensic psychologist Thomas Dalby on the Taber school shootings; John Vertes on aboriginal justice; and Hersh Wolch on a young prosecutor's trial by fire.

Other books in the Durville True Cases series are Shrunk: Crime and Disorders of the Mind (2016) and More Tough Crimes: True Cases by Canadian Judges and Criminal Lawyers. (upcoming 2017) What makes this series so unique and successful is the personal perspectives of the writers. Like no other books, the True Cases series provides the public with a window to the world of criminal justice.

Demystifying the professions for professionals and the informed general public.

THOUGHTS ABOUT THE BOOK

"Tough Crimes demonstrates that Crown prosecutors and criminal defence lawyers do not escape unscathed from serious trials. The disturbing memories remain."

— Hon. John C. Major CC QC,
Retired Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada

"These stories illustrate the gamut of emotions from exhilaration to fear experienced in the world of criminal trial work."

— Hon. Felix Cacchione,
Justice of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia
