

THE RIVER TROLL

A Story About Love

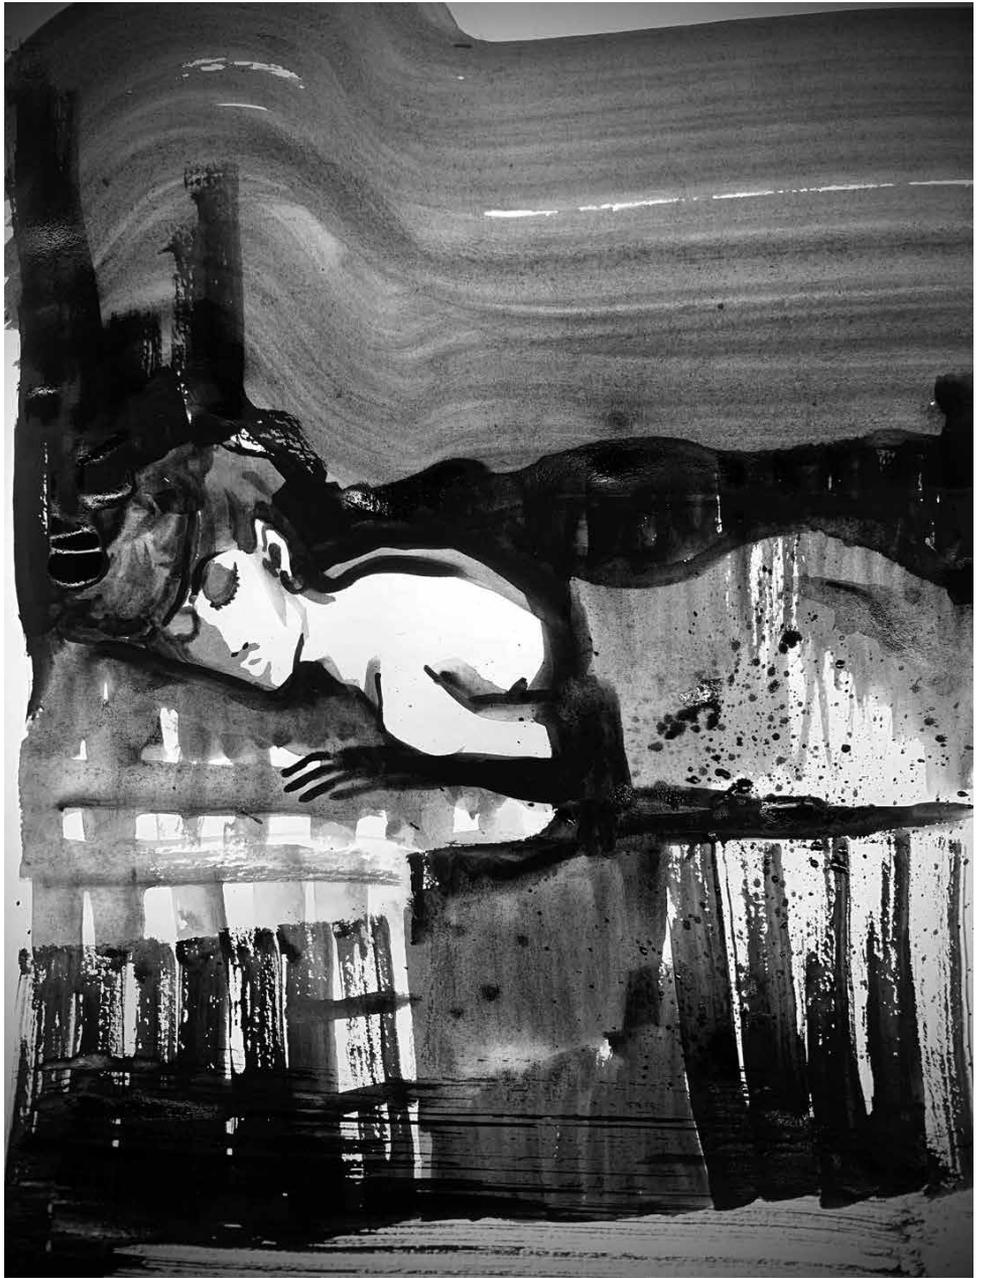

by Rich Thérroux

ILLUSTRATIONS

Chapter 1

*Scan for ch.1
animation*

Jess, snoring a little.

Pulling on my shirt to go for a walk.

Pirates let themselves in.

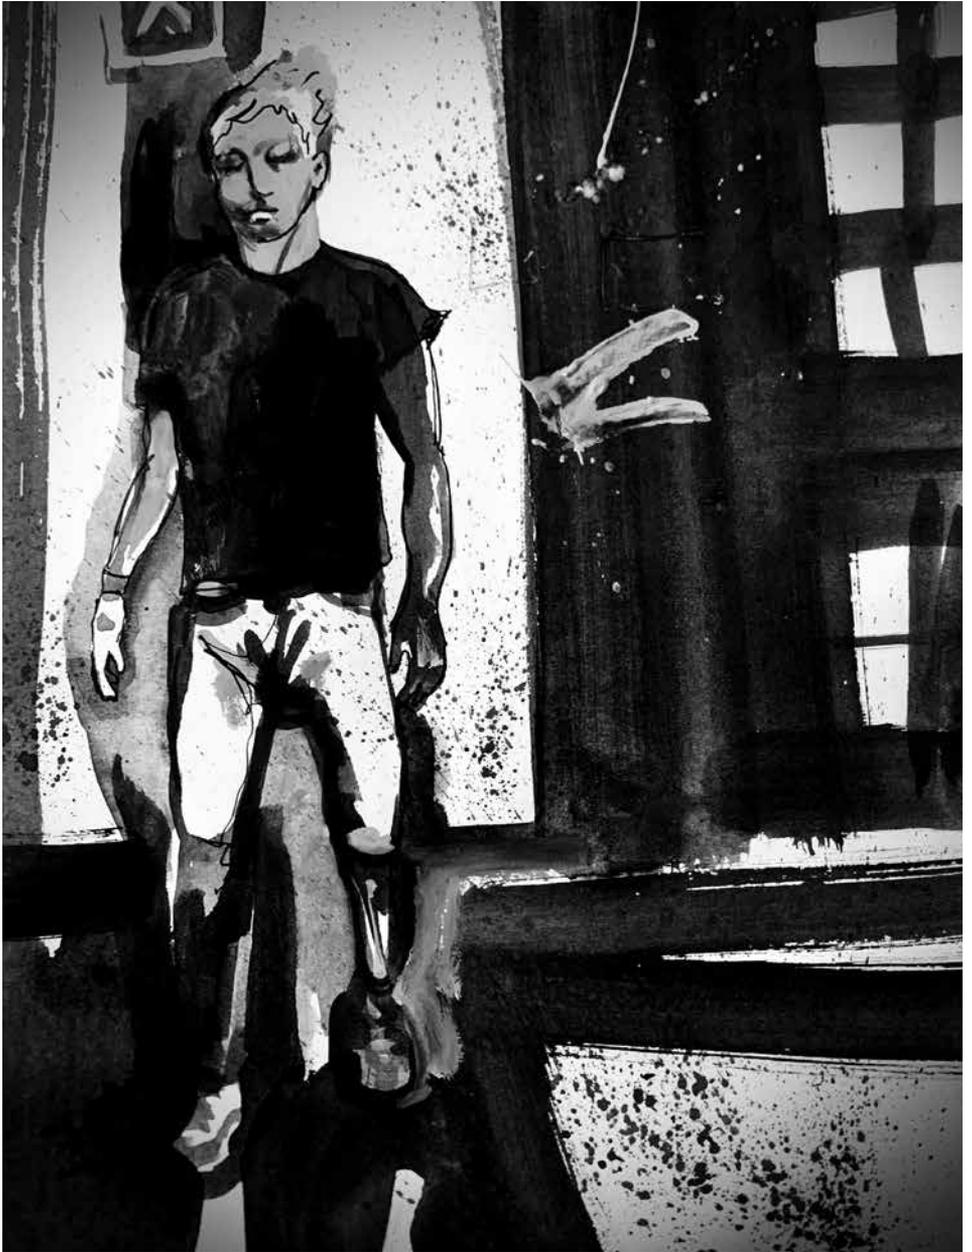

The drunk in the lobby.

Chapter 2

Scan

Stepping out in the street.

The sleepy metropolis.

The troll.

Ugly clout.

Opens his hand.

Soaring through the warm air.

The giantess.

Chapter 3

Scan

Getting to the river.

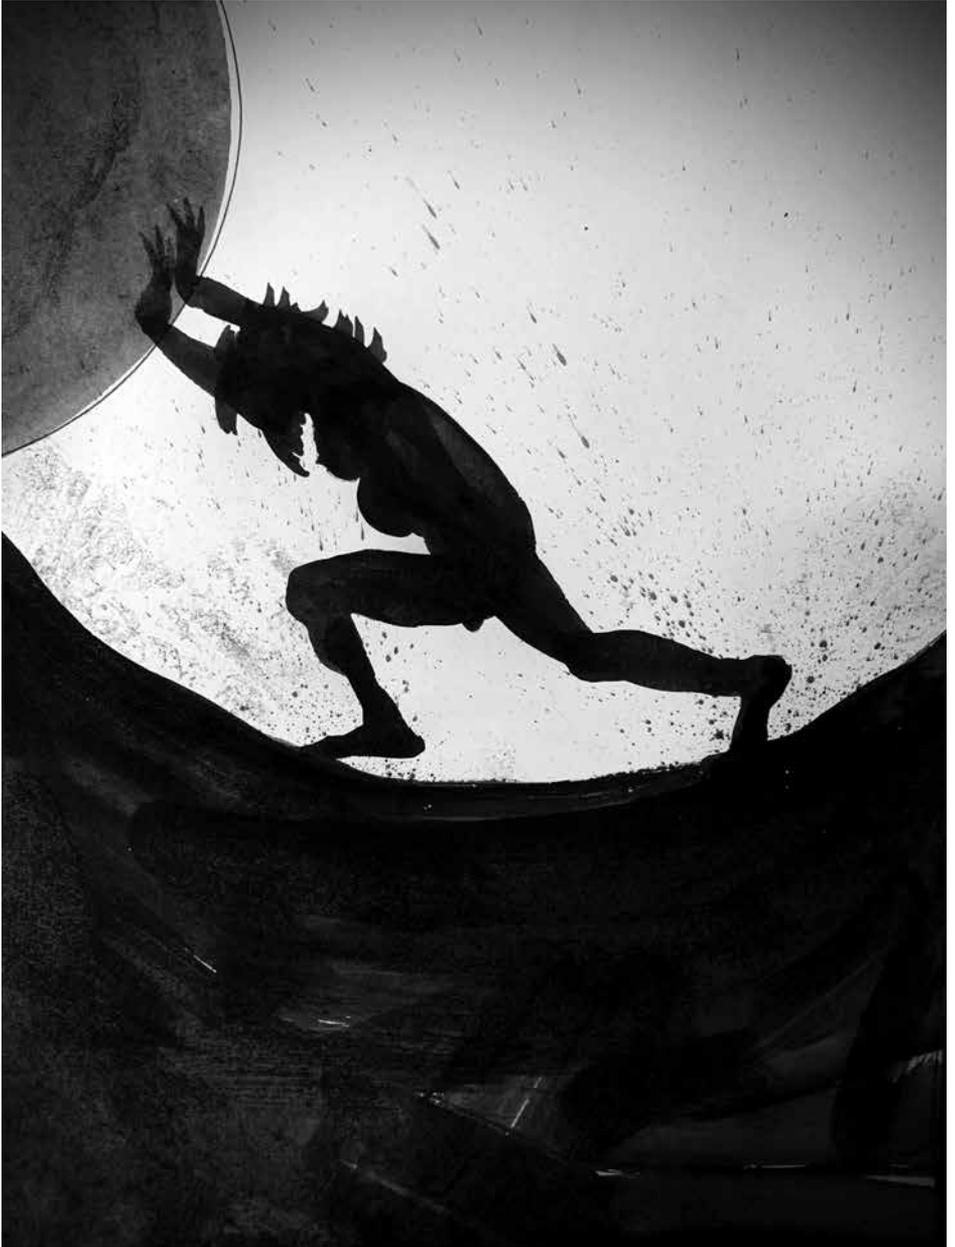

Jess makes coffee.

Roadkill rabbit.

The minotaur.

Myth of Sisyphus.

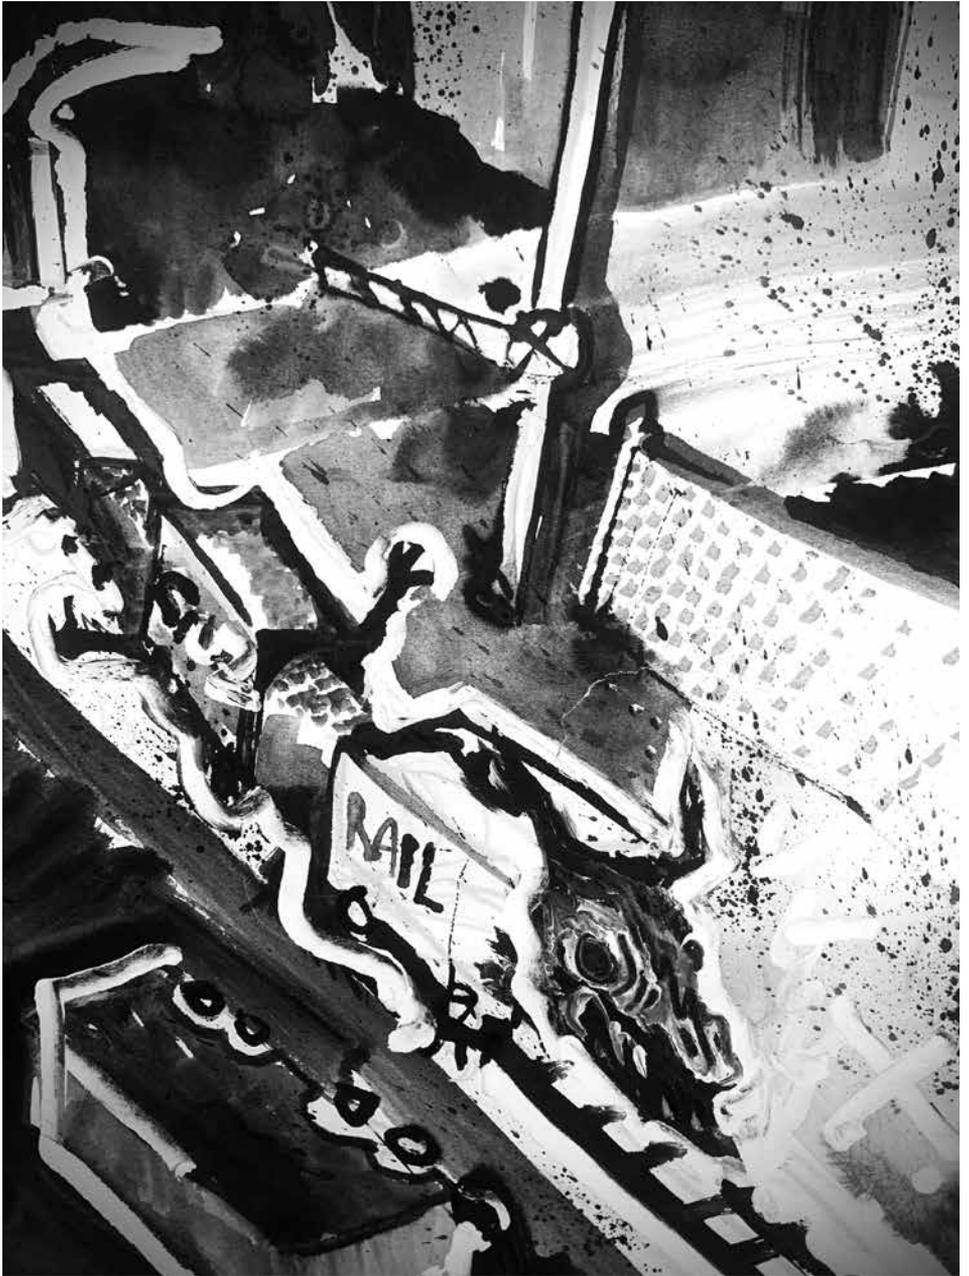

Tigers in their cages.

Chapter 4

Scan

Dragon train.

Clever monkey.

Hockey.

Chapter 5

Scan

A moth flies down.

Marks and scratches.

Chapter 6

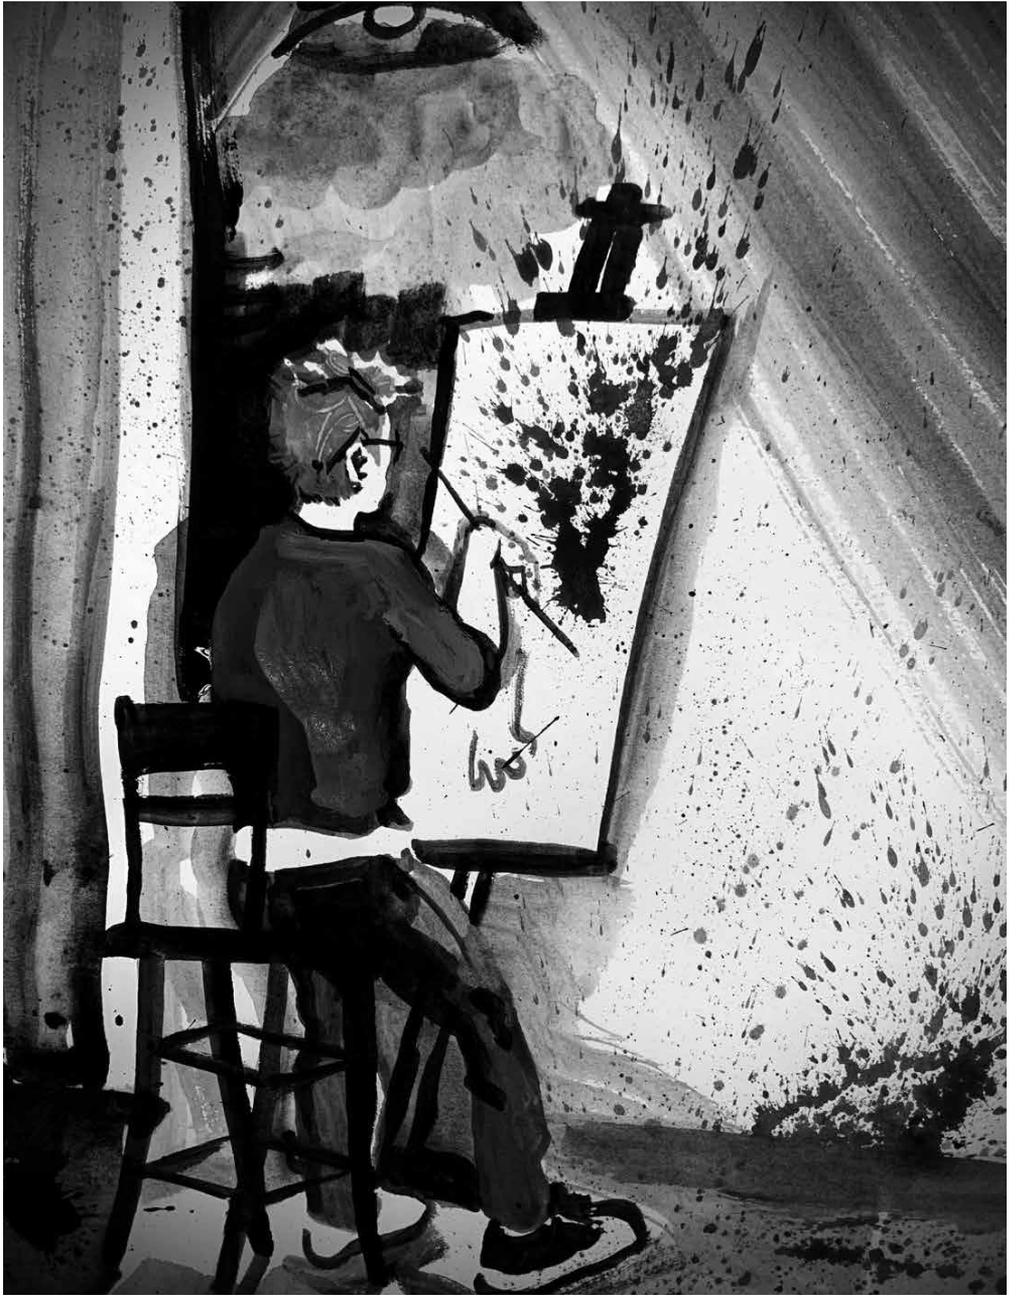

Scan

The gallery.

Descriptive.

Troll is in the canvas.

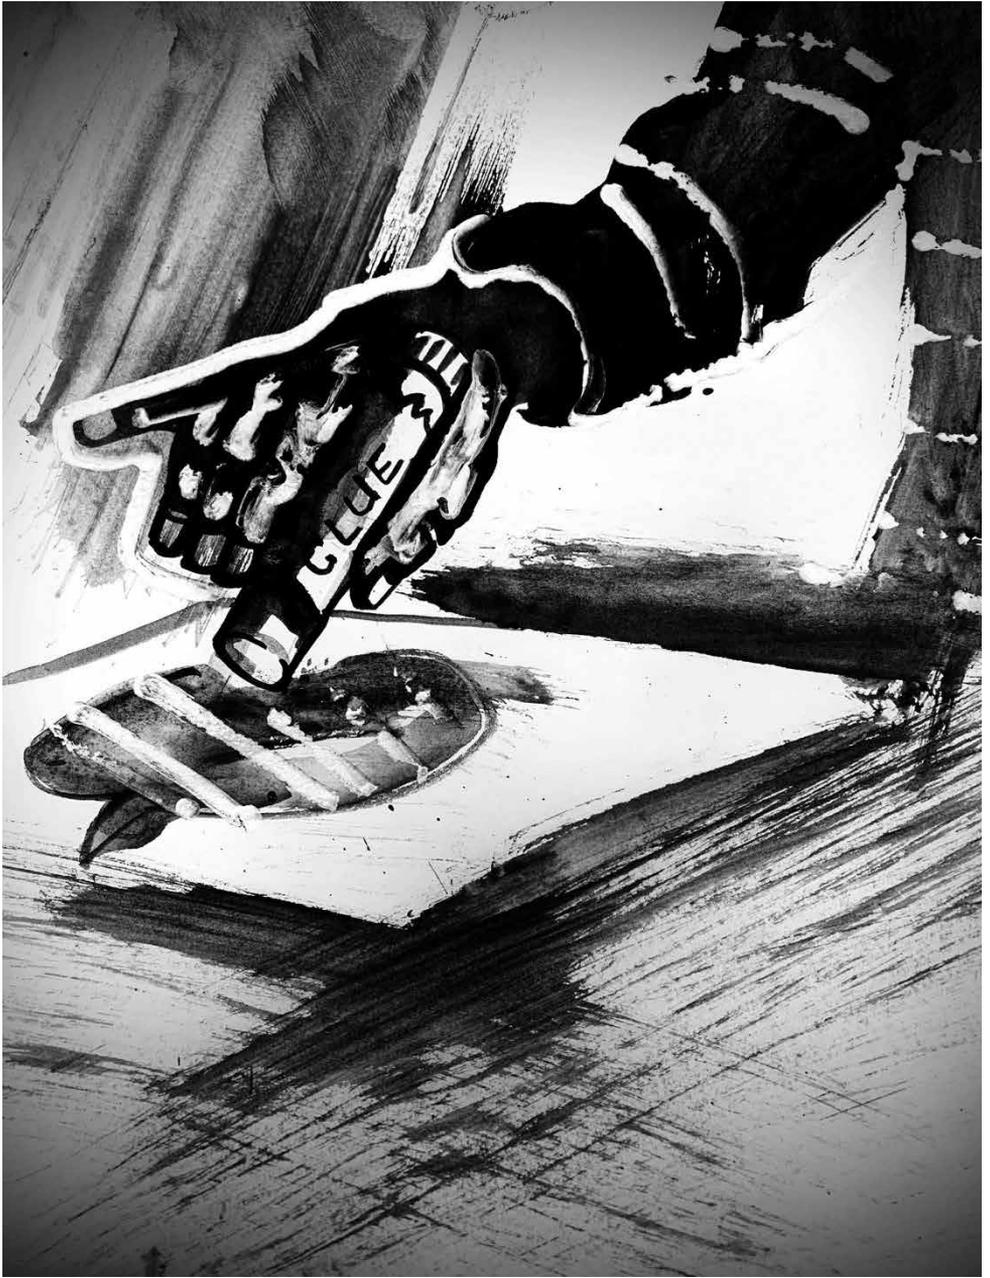

Minoda's description of a lamp.

Chapter 7

Scan

Glue.

Staff room.

Man bun.

Figure drawing.

Chapter 8

Scan

Baba Yaga.

Chapter 9

Scan

Seven years old.

Why dad?

Falling and happy.

Chapter 10

Scan

Johnny Cash.

White Spider.

Scan

Connected.

Chapter 11

Scan

Clever monkey.

Stump-leg troll.

Giantess steps.

ABOUT RICH THÉROUX

Besides being a caveman, Rich is a genius talent at painting and drawing. His art hangs here and there in prominent homes and galleries but he prefers not to boast about it. Rich is founder of Calgary's Rumble House gallery and happens to also teach junior high school art. He is the author and illustrator of Stop Making Art and Die, and the co-author of the poetry book, A Wake in the Undertow, along with his partner Jess Szabo. Intriguingly, he calls himself a tomato can. He and his gang exist/co-exist in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

